The Reed Discover Solution

Your first step into re-defining your talent acquisition process

Our experts will help you discover how to enhance talent acquisition within your organisation.

You'll choose one area from attraction, assessment, onboarding or retention.

And through data analysis and stakeholder engagement we'll explore themes like your employer value proposition, learning and development, assessment techniques, diversity and inclusion, and your behaviours and culture.

How Reed Discover works

To start to understand the chosen area within your organisation, we send an online survey to your key people

Wherever possible we will gather metrics from you around things like time to hire, retention, and employee engagement

The next step is to identify the key participants and book in the workshop session

Our lead consultant runs the workshop with your key people to delve into the key issues and to test some ideas

We'll then write up the results of the initial discovery and workshop, sharing our insight into the wider market, and provide you with recommendations for change

Next steps: You can take our report and look to implement the findings, and our team will be on hand to help with anything you wish to do as a result of our work

Reed Discover gives you...

Access to our HR & talent experts

The Consultancy+ Reed Discover team have a combined 60 years experience in HR and Talent Management. They've worked with all kinds of organisations across multiple sectors, giving an outstanding insight into solving the challenges you may face. Even from a short interaction with our team you will benefit hugely from their experience. Reed Discover also gives you the chance to "try us out" before embarking on a wider change project.

A great way to start engaging your key stakeholders

If you're looking to kick-off a change programme and not quite sure where to start or who in the organisation needs to be engaged.
